

Add Health

The National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent to Adult Health

2026 IAPHS Conference | September 29–October 2, 2026

Abstract Concurrent Sessions

Wednesday, September 30, 2026

11:00 AM | Beyond the Paradox: Immigrant Mental Health Equity Across Generation, Language, and Gender | Salon GH

Healthy Immigrant Paradox: Depressive Symptoms and Anxiety among Middle Aged American Adults using the National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent to Adult Health (Add Health)

M. K. Kim, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill | Carolina Population Center

11:00 AM | How Do Institutions, Policies, and Place Shape Health Across the Life Course? | Salon E

School Policy Punitiveness and Midlife Cardiometabolic Risk: Gender, Race, and Health in the Zero Tolerance Era

S. Tuder, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill | Carolina Population Center

Thursday, October 1, 2026

1:45 PM | Relational and Structural Determinants of Mental Health in Racialized and Immigrant Communities | Salon GH

Connecting Support: Social Network Diversity, Mental Health, and Help-Seeking Among Young Asian Americans

H. Yang, University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

Friday, October 2, 2026

11:00 AM | Political Economy and the Production of Health Inequities | Salon F

Linkages between Educational Context and Biological Risk Factors of Alzheimer's Disease and Other Related Dementias (ADRD) among Early Midlife Americans

T. Hargrove, University of Maryland, College Park; H. Pei, Columbia University; J. Polos, DePaul University; C. Martin, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Add Health

The National Longitudinal Study of Adolescent to Adult Health

2026 IAPHS Conference | September 29–October 2, 2026

Poster Presentations – Exhibit Hall

Wednesday, September 30, 2026

6:00 PM | Structural Factors | Poster Session 1, P2330, Row 12, Panel 1

Resilience as a Blessing, not a Choice: How Black Men and Women Cope with Residential Segregation in Adolescence on Cardiometabolic Risk in Adulthood

A. Harrell, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Thursday, October 1, 2026

5:30 PM | Health Care/Services | Poster Session 2, P0620, Row 5, Panel 1

Medicaid in Midlife: State-Level Medicaid Program Generosity and Enrollment Outcomes

S. Petry, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; S. Baca-Atlas, Carolina Population Center

5:30 PM | Life-Course/Developmental | Poster Session 2, P1470, Row 10, Panel 4

Life Course Trajectories of Depressive Symptomatology in the United States: Longitudinal Integrative Data Analysis of Large-Scale Population-Based Cohort Studies

M. Zhang, Carolina Population Center